Our Heritage for the 21st Century

THE SCRJ PUBLICATIONS PROGRAM

Creating New Resources for the Study and Celebration of our Reform Jewish Heritage

When the Society for Classical Reform Judaism was founded in 2008, there were few available materials in print offering contemporary worship and music resources and current information on the history and principles of our particular voice within the broader Reform Movement. In the brief seven years since then, the SCRJ has created and fostered a growing body of liturgical, musical and scholarly literature that have filled a critical void in Jewish bibliography. We are proud to offer an overview of our various publications that are helping to preserve and renew our heritage as Reform Jews:

The Rise and Growth of Reform Judaism: 50th Anniversary Edition

JPS Anthologies of Jewish Thought - Publication: Fall 2015

THE RISE OF REFORM JUDAISM: A Sourcebook of its European Origins

By Rabbi Gunther Plaut (author)
Rabbi Howard Berman (foreword)
Rabbi Solomon B. Freehof (foreword)
